

By: Angela SmithTopics: Business Review, Shopping

New Openings come to Ann Arbor's West Side

Posted: Today, 46 minutes ago

0 Comment. Comment Now

Some changes are on the horizon for shoppers on the West Side of Ann Arbor. A couple of new Openings to report this week:

Recently, Edward Jones moved in to Maple Village on the northeast corner Maple Road and Jackson Road in Ann Arbor, MI. With tax season upon us, the financial experts at Edward Jones are eager to help with investment advice and money matters.

Edward Jones
MAKING SENSE OF INVESTING

The new location at 213 N Maple, is one of 14 locations in Ann Arbor listed on their website. Just Baked, a Livonia, MI -based cupcake bakery, is opening its third location, and first for Ann Arbor, in March. The Westgate Mall will be home to this delectable shop. According to their website, we can look forward to 30 different flavors of gourmet, "jumbo" cupcakes including: rocky road, s'mores, and white chocolate raspberry. Just Baked also offers several traditional, buttercream "mini" cupcakes and other fresh made sweet treats. The new location is at 2463 West Stadium Boulevard Ann Arbor, MI.