

August 4, 2011

<http://detnews.com/article/20110804/LIFESTYLE05/108040318>

Good Stuff

KATE LAWSON/ The Detroit News

One good day

The Woodward Dream Cruise isn't just for car lovers. Just Baked cupcake shop will transform its Royal Oak location into "Just Detroit" from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Aug. 20 so Cruisers can enjoy both new and old Detroit favorites including American Coney Island, Faygo, Better Made potato chips, Garden Fresh salsa, Slows Bar BQ, Velvet peanut butter, Hard Luck Candy vodka and more. Visitors can sample and buy cupcakes along with products from the other participating vendors. The store is at 32828 Woodward.

One good event

Raw foods are the rage, and today through Sunday David Wolfe, an authority on raw foods and superfoods, will be in Royal Oak for "David Wolfe Raw." At 7:30 tonight, the film "Food Matters" will be screened at the Royal Oak Main Art Theatre, 118 N. Main, and there will be a post-film Q&A with Wolfe, one of the film's stars. Tickets are $10. From 7-10 p.m. Friday, there will be a gourmet raw dinner and book signing with Wolfe at the former Mezza Mediterranean Grille, 212 W. Fifth. Tickets are $150 and include a four-course gourmet dinner, fresh raw alcoholic and nonalcoholic drinks and dancing to live music. A two-day conference from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday features Wolfe and Hollywood raw foods chef and educator Jason Wrobel. Tickets for a two-day pass are $199. For event details, call (248) 470-4290.

© Copyright 2011 The Detroit News. All rights reserved.