

Local teacher named Just Baked Teacher of Week

Chris Wojcik, a third-grade teacher at Buchanan Elementary School in Livonia, was named Just Baked Teacher of the Week on 100.3 WNIC. Her entire class received cupcakes, compliments of Just Baked.

A parent nominated her on Fresh 100.3 WNIC. Jay Towers and his morning crew read the parent's email nomination on the air over several days. On Oct. 7, Dare Dan from the radio show delivered Just Baked cupcakes to her entire class.

Wojcik received a framed "Teacher of the Week" certificate signed by Jay Towers, Renee Vitale, Jenna Cork and Dare Dan.

Each child got a cupcake, and Wojcik was given a six pack of Just Baked's most favorite selling cupcakes with a note from Just Baked, too.

Around 8:20 a.m. Dare Dan called Jay Towers from her classroom, and she spoke with him live. She arranged for her whole class to come in early to participate and take photos with Dare Dan.

Her students interviewed Dare Dan and asked him questions like, "If you could have a super power, what would it be?" (He chose flying.)

Wojcik calls her room "Awesome Town" and says awesome people work in room 31. Wojcik has a mayor of Awesome Town who picks a mayoral staff each week to do the class jobs.

Wojcik is also a Livonia Public Schools Elementary Teacher of the Year.
